

Picnic Shelters

Shelter 1

Host a picnic or party! Squire Creek has two, very reasonably-priced, 30' wide shelters and plenty of room to spread out. Each has power and water (during the summer months), a cooking grill, and seating for 20.

Shelter 2

Explore more

Located right outside the town of Darrington, Squire Creek sets the stage for exploring the rugged Mt Baker - Snoqualmie National Forest and the great outdoors: Hike to Whitehorse Mountain, discover the world of mushrooms, visit a fire look-out, or marvel at the majesty of a cascading waterfall. All from the many trails accessed in the area.

While in town, watch a parade, visit a bazaar, or participate in the Darrington Bluegrass Festival.

Driving Directions:

From I-5 take SR530 east through Arlington; drive 26 miles toward Darrington. Look for signs. Park entrance is on the left.

Squire Creek Campground

Squire Creek Campground provides tent & RV camping in a beautiful 2nd-growth forest. The 20-acre park is adjacent to Squire Creek and the perfect staging location for enjoying the Mt. Baker-Snoqualmie National Forest.

“When I was a Kid” Camping

Campsite

Nestled among the second-growth trees, Squire Creek offers the same no-frills kind of camping you enjoyed as a kid. No hook-ups, no wi-fi, no satellite TV. Just the sounds of the forest, the creek, and a crackling fire.

Campsite

Each site offers ample space for tents and many have room for an RV. Sites include a picnic table, a fire ring with grill top, and lots and lots of nature. Water spigots are spread throughout the campground and winterized during the cold season. Restrooms are open during the summer months and sanicans are provided during the winter months. Dump station services are not available.

Creekside View

After your hike, relax along the banks of Squire Creek where you can view spawning salmon in the fall.

2nd-Growth Tree

Look up! Among the moss-laden trees, you just may spot one of the many eagles that are home to this area.
